EVERETT

Chamber of Commerce

About the Chamber... The Everett Chamber of Commerce is pleased to provide the 2015 - 2017 Local Business Directory. The Chamber represents and promotes a number of businesses within the Everett community that you will find inside this directory.

The Everett Chamber is here to assist businesses with market exposure and advocate for legislative changes that will promote economic growth. We hold a number of networking events, including breakfasts, dinner meetings, golf tournaments, and community events where members can make new business contacts, network, seek advice, and learn best practices from business leaders.

We hope you keep this directory handy and that you frequent the businesses that help support our community. For more information about the Everett Chamber visit everettmachamber.com or follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn.

The “Sacro Companies” have been serving the needs of Everett citizens for over 60 years.

Salvy J. Sacro began his career shining shoes, setting up bowling pins in Glendale Square, and had four different newspapers routes in Everett. Sal began building wood window cornices for his newspaper customers in his parent’s basement on Carlson Street. His talent was quickly recognized and at age ten he was hired to build and install his first complete set of kitchen cabinets. “Sacro Kitchens” was born. Always a hard worker, he opened a kitchen cabinet showroom in Glendale Square. Later he purchased the same building at the corner of Broadway and Ferry Street. He gained valuable experience renovating apartments over the showroom. Sal developed Glendale Court Apartments next to Eastern Bank and Sacro Plaza in Everett Square to serve the housing needs of Everett’s residents. He later developed affordable retirement housing at the original Everett High School on Summer Street which is now the Whitney-Lorenti House named for two of his valued employees. One of Sal’s mottos has always been, “bad things happen for good reasons”. Sal makes Everett his home and continues to serve Everett’s housing needs.

Today, it's natural to have questions about your retirement, even if you've saved and planned for it. With our exclusive Confident Retirement® approach, we'll find answers and take the first step toward creating a road map to the future you want. We'll talk through the four basic principles of retirement: (1) covering essential expenses, (2) assuring your lifestyle, (3) preparing for the unexpected and (4) leaving a legacy. And I'll help you make adjustments as needed so you can retire on your terms.

I'm focused on meeting the financial needs of Clients in my community -- You have dreams and goals, and we'll work together to help put them more within reach. As an advisor living and working in your community, I'm available to work with you in a way that meets your needs. I gain tremendous satisfaction in knowing that people in my community are more confident about their financial futures.

The Confident Retirement® approach is not a guarantee of future financial results. Greg Maganzini, owner of DiBlasi's, began working at the shop when he was in high school. Little did he know that 15 years later, he'd be back behind the counter as the owner. Greg's mission is to carry on the 60+ year reputation of DiBlasi's. Greg uses only the freshest and highest quality ingredients, making multiple stops each morning at local vendors to ensure his customers enjoy the best product every time they order. Greg prides himself on the favorites that keep customers coming back year after year, such as his homemade chicken and veal cutlets, homemade meatballs, his eggplant, and shaved-daily steak subs. Not to be missed is the "Steak and Cheese Challenge" where customers compete to finish a 30" Steak and Cheese sub in 30 minutes! Winners receive prizes and bragging rights for a lifetime! We also offer a full catering menu and school and business lunch deliveries.

Below are a few recent Yelp reviews from our customers:

- "Wow. We had the team prepare a tailgate for us for the Pats game on Sunday and boy did they come through! It was ALL amazing—the chicken parm calzone is something I may dream about for months to come. Thanks to Greg and team!"

- "The food is fresh and well made. The steak and cheese (my favorite with provolone and mushrooms) is fantastic."

- "I've had the meatball, the chicken parm, the eggplant parm, and some of the cold cut sandwiches, all good, all awesome!"

Mention the Chamber Guide and get a free slice of pizza with purchase of any sub. Limit one use per customer.

Marji's Florist provides custom hours where necessary. Should you have a need for flowers on Sunday, just call us in advance and we will accommodate!

Marji's Florist and Gift Shop is a second generation, family-owned and operated local florist proudly serving Everett and surrounding communities since 1975. Throughout our 40 years in business we have maintained our commitment to using only top grade, fresh flowers at all times to insure the value of every purchase in our shop. We specialize in design—contemporary, high style, and traditional—to create beautiful floral arrangements that evoke the sentiment our customer wishes to convey. We are a full service florist, accommodating all floral needs, from single stems and bouquets purchased in-shop, to large events and weddings, expertly delivered and set up at any venue. Our individualized approach and 100% Satisfaction Guarantee are hallmarks of our Small Business.

Mindful of the support from our community throughout our 40 years, Marji's Florist endeavors to give back to Everett whenever possible through volunteering and/or in-kind contributions.

Thank you for shopping small and local!

Four-time winner of Boston Magazine's "Best of Boston" award, Sadhana Yoga is a neighborhood studio that prides itself on creating an inviting atmosphere where people who are completely new to yoga can feel comfortable learning what Yoga is about. Some people do Yoga strictly for fitness or to heal chronic pain. Some do Yoga for stress reduction. While others find in Yoga a platform to create more overall balance in their lives at a physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual level. It depends on what the individual is looking for. Sadhana Yoga aims to provide a very "down to earth" approach for those interested in learning about Yoga and strives to offer classes that are both experiential and educational—welcoming to people of all abilities and "walks of life."

Various payment methods and Memberships are available, but we suggest that upon your first visit, you take advantage of our "Introductory Offer" which allows you to take unlimited classes for 30 days for $30 ($24 if you have a valid student ID).

If you've been curious about Yoga, please come give Sadhana Yoga a try. You will be hard-pressed to find a less intimidating Yoga studio. See what Yoga is all about.

Hello and welcome! I am Sal, the owner of Sal's Driving School. I opened the driving school in 1985 after working as a driving instructor in a local driving school. Shortly after opening the school, it rapidly became popular in the neighborhood of Everett, Malden, Melrose, Saugus, and surrounding areas.

Driving school instruction for me consists of more than just another business; it remains my passion. I treat clients with appreciation and they learn not only how to operate a vehicle, but also how to drive defensively and how to overcome the fear of driving.

Acknowledging the diverse background of customers, I provide services in four languages: English, Spanish, Italian, and French. The school also boasts a wide age range of clients, from 16 to 82 years old, all of whom successfully passed their road tests and emerged on the roads as safe drivers.

The competitive combination of prices and quality keeps the school in business for many years.

If you have any questions about the school, please call or email me and we will talk about the details. I look forward to being your guide on the roads!

The Place to Go for Chinese Food in Everett
When you're craving Chinese food, Tasty Garden Restaurant is the place to go. Open daily for lunch and dinner, we have an extensive menu with a wide array of gourmet Cantonese, Polynesian, Szechuan, and Mandarin-style cuisine that's sure to satisfy. You're sure to love our dishes, all of which are made with fine, fresh ingredients.

Here's what one of our many customers has to say about us:

"We have talked about going to Tasty Garden before and have just never made it, plus there are a ton of similar restaurants around anyway, right? Well we finally made it last night and I am mad we didn't try it sooner. Everything was great about our trip. We were greeted and shown to a booth right away. A very short time later our meals were brought to the table. We got the House Pu Pu for 2 and the house fried rice. Everything was great-tasting and hot and the fried items all lightly crispy. I took a bite of the boneless spareribs and was pleasantly surprised at the taste, a little more of something (but couldn't quite tell what it was) in the sauce but it made them very good. Looking forward to our next meal there."

The Everett Advocate Newspaper first began publishing in 1991, becoming Advocate Newspapers, Inc. founder James David Mitchell's second weekly free tabloid newspaper following The Revere Advocate. Alongside his partner and mentor-father, James D. Mitchell, Jr., the company grew into four weekly newspapers, adding The Malden Advocate and Saugus Advocate to the fold. The Advocate Newspapers, Inc. are independently-owned and operated, providing a colorful reflection of their respective communities, highlighting local political, sports, and the social scenes. James David is a Past Distinguished President and current board member of the Everett Kiwanis Club, as well as a longtime member for the Everett Chamber of Commerce.

In 2011, the Everett Advocate was honored by the E-Club of Everett with the "Distinguished Sports Journalism Award." The Advocate provides yearly financial support to local sports teams and civic organizations as well as free publicity to all non-profit organizations. An advertiser-supported company, the Advocate Newspapers boasts loyal advertisers who have supported the newspapers for over two decades while the advertisers enjoy financial success due to the newspapers' enthusiastic readership. The Advocate Newspapers are also available online at: www.advocateneews.net

For advertising rates and information, call Jim Mitchell at 617-387-2200. The Advocate newspapers are published free every Friday.

Did you know that it doesn't cost anything extra to book your travel through an agent?

With a travel agency you get great customer service by working with a real person, not a computer or automated system, and deals on the best places at the lowest rates—we can match or beat any price you find online! You also get a knowledgeable advocate in the event of unforeseen issues like overbooking or cancellations.

When it comes to planning the perfect trip, it pays to work with people who are knowledgeable about all aspects of travel.

A little about us: Travel Master Inc. opened in Everett, MA in 1984. Jo-Ann Perella joined the company as a travel agent after working as a ticket agent for Delta Airlines. Her passion for travel compelled her to stay with the company, and eventually she took over its ownership along with her partner, Charles Barbagallo, in 1992. The Travel Master team loves to travel, and they love making others happy by helping them have a great experience seeing the world.

The agents at Travel Master, Jo-Ann Perella, Donna Crafts, and Melissa Langone, have over 30 years of experience and their happy customers come back for generations. Let them show you the difference a good travel agent can make!

At Travel Master we work hard to make your travel easy!

NO MORE WAITING IN LINE

Why wait in line at the Registry of Motor Vehicles when you can insure and register your vehicle at the same place? At the Francis J. LaRovere Insurance Agency, Inc. you can insure and register your vehicle at the same location. We offer issuance of license plates, transfer of registrations, and renewal of registrations to all of our valued clientele, even after the Registry is closed and on Saturdays. Please call today to schedule an appointment.
